It Seems to Me

Amateur Radio Enthusiasts love to eat.

They find restaurants that allow them to talk ham radio while they munch down on good, inexpensive food. The granddaddy of them all is Meeders Restaurant in Ripley. The only meal that I have ever ate there was breakfast. When I go to a hamfest in New York, we usually ride up with Fred N2LXD. It is early in the morning and it is the first restaurant after we are all in Fred's car. Meeders is open. I have heard stories from hams that they have been going there for years.

When the RAE was at the Red Cross Building downtown, we used to go to Barbados's Restaurant next to Dee's Cigar Store on 18th and State. I always bought a meatball sub and a beer. Heartburn followed. Nuff said.

The place that some "hams" go now on Thursday, is the Shriners club on 38th and Zuck Road. The food is good, and some of it is served buffet style. The nice thing about the Shriners is that they have tables that accommodate 10 people or more. The place is well decorated and sort of regal.

Another place to go only on Tuesdays is the Summit

Senior Center on Townhall Road. There are five tables that seat 20 persons. Each table is responsible for the main entre' and all others are to bring a pot luck dish. I would stop at either Perkins or Eat n Park and buy two pies as my contribution. They have a saying, "Life is short, eat dessert first!" The food there was always delicious and varied. On the down side, some of the people are very old and although it never happened, what if they accidentally put something in the food that is not good to eat.

I'm not sure why we changed. Joe KA3CPV said there was too much political talk. Gene N3JZL thought that the prices were too high. Rick WA3MKT just wanted a change, so we started going to Perkins on 8th Street. We have been going there so long we have built up a reputation. The waitress knows exactly how to fix the food and what to bring to the table. Often times we are joined by Mike Morrison KC3COG or Neal N3ZMP or my wife Debbie KB3RUD. Alas, Perkins is no more. The waitress assure me the even if the name changes, they will still be there.

Another place "hams" eat is Larry Kemmler's Greasy Spoon, but only on Saturday mornings in the Fall, Winter and Spring. Larry serves up sausage and bacon and fried eggs. Others bring donuts and make toast. It is a very hearty breakfast. Also at Larry KGS on the second Tuesday of the month we also have a potluck dinner from 6 to 7PM. From 7PM to 7:15 we have the meeting. Larry's KGS is located at the Green Township building on Tate Road.
